Thanks Guang-yu. John McShane had asked me to review the letter first and then send it to him. So I will expect to see it Wednesday.

As for the discussion about stakeholder involvement, Sam would also like to be part of the conversation as well if he is available. Let's schedule the following week since Thursday is an EC meeting day.
How is Monday the 22nd anytime from 9-noon is currently available on both of our schedules.

We are working on it now and should be able to meet the timeline you proposed. Next Thursday we have our Executive Committee in the afternoon. But we may be able to chat in the morning, pending on Tom's schedule.

Hi Guang-yu,

Wanted to know your progress on the PE Evaluation letter review. We are hoping to complete the letter by September 30th and were hoping to receive a draft back from you next week. Should we set a date of Sept 17th for you to return a draft?

Also would be interested in setting up a call next week to discuss you and Tom's thoughts on reviewing stakeholder involvement. Perhaps we can chat Thursday the 18th?

Thanks!
